"I think 'The Miracle Man' is the best picture I've ever seen."
—MARY PICKFORD.

"'The Miracle Man' made me play the baby. In my opinion it is a marvelous picture."
—WILLIAM S. HART.

GEORGE LOANE TUCKERS

THE MIRACLE MAN

"Frankly, I cannot say why I liked 'The Miracle Man.' You wouldn't attempt to analyze the Pyramids. I can only say I was so happy, so exalted during its performance, it was some hours later before I got back to earth."
—CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG.

"Marvelous, wonderful; it's absolutely superlative. Mr. Tucker has gotten over on the screen the most life-like portrayal of a story that I have ever seen."
—DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS.

The Greyhound's Origin.

The origin of the greyhound, according to some authors, is a mystery. In ancient times the greyhound was considered a valuable present, especially by ladies, with whom it appears to have been a particular favorite. In the reign of Henry VIII the greyhound was distinguished as one of the king's beasts.

Pat Little Failing.

Pat isn't exactly a hypocrite, but he is willing for the children and all sorts in the house to think he has lost all the bones he has in the house.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cleanse the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" or bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—dizziness—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant relief from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c.

DOWNAL CENTER

The Ladies Aid Society of the Center church will hold a social at the home of Mrs. Eber C. Denton, Wednesday afternoon and evening, Jan. 7.

The Sunday school held election of officers at its session Sunday afternoon. The following were chosen for the coming year: Superintendent, Mrs. Robert L. Brown, assistant superintendent, Warren Ostrander; secretary, Miss Elizabeth Towles; assistant secretary, Miss Dorothy Ely; treasurer, Miss Irene Card; organist, Miss Gladys Odell; superintendent of missions, Mrs. Robert L. Brown; superintendent of the cradle roll, Miss Elizabeth Towles.

DEER STEALER PARDONED

Henry Soula Released Because of Good War Record.

Burlington, Jan. 2.—Henry Soula, one of the men convicted of stealing deer from friends with whom he had gone hunting on December 3rd and sent to the house of correction in Windsor for three to six months, was pardoned yesterday by Governor Clement.

Soula with Howard Shappy of this city had been hunting with two other men and while the latter slept and his companion skipped out with the deer. The theft was discovered and Game Inspector Gagne later found the carcass of the deer. The men were brought into court on December 15 and sentenced to serve from three to six months at Windsor.

Yesterday Governor Clement signed a release for Soula, on the grounds that he holds an honorable discharge from the United States Army and is suffering at the present time from shell shock and tuberculosis. Only his splendid record saved Soula who is placed on parole with the proviso that he report to the probation officer at regular intervals.

He is 25 years of age and the theft was the first offense in which he is implicated. The Governor was actuated in his action by the offices of United States Commissioner J. J. Enright who took up Soula's case for him.

AFTER PARLOR REDS

That Some Are American Born Will Not Save Them.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Unable to prosecute the so-called parlor Bolsheviks, long haired men and short haired women who encourage agitators and promote sedition as a pastime, Attorney General Palmer today issued an appeal to Congress for prompt action on the bill submitted by him several months ago which would strengthen the hands of the department of justice in dealing with American citizens considered dangerous to the nation.

Coming on the heels of the most successful nationwide raid ever made in this country on centers of radical propaganda, Mr. Palmer's statement was regarded with unusual interest by representatives and senators here for the reconvening of Congress tomorrow.

At least one of the men taken in the raids is a city official, and numerous others are natives of this country or have taken out citizenship papers after long residence. It is these that Mr. Palmer desires to handle through the federal courts rather than to leave their punishment to state tribunals and in the absence of a federal law he is unable to do so.

Anxious.

A city school principal was rushing along the street the other day when a youngster about eight years old stopped her. "Have you the principal at Blank building?" he asked.

The principal nodded her head. "Why? Do you go there?" she asked to turn.

"No," he returned. "I go to another building. But I just wanted to know if the fellow had begun at your building yet?"

Shrub May Prove Valuable.

Two years before the war, as the story is told, two German chemists applied for permission to experiment with the plant life on a great semi-arid ranch in central Mexico. Their request was granted, with the understanding that they furnish a complete report of their findings. The two chemists worked feverishly, and chiefly on a squat, odorless shrub called "gobernadora," long reputed to possess medicinal properties. Suddenly they disappeared; what they had discovered was never known. Now, after experiments with this same desert shrub which they have found in other parts of New Mexico, chemists of the United States department of agriculture believe that they have discovered another alkaloid to add to the list which includes morphine, quinine and cocaine. Its chemical and pharmaceutical properties are now under investigation. Popular Mechanics Magazine.

ROBUST CHILDREN

A child should not look pale, thin or worn. Such condition denotes malnutrition. To keep up growth and robustness a child needs a plenitude of food rich in vitamins.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

abundant in growth-promoting properties, is an ideal supplemental food that could well be a part of the diet of every growing child.

Children always do well on Scott's Emulsion.

CHANDLER SIX

Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

Chandler Strides into Full Leadership

If there has ever been any question as to Chandler leadership of the medium-priced fine car field, it is answered now. The great Chandler Six is sweeping its market. It displaces less efficient cars. It steps in to serve those who previously have chosen only high-priced cars. And it pleases everywhere.

From two thousand to three thousand discriminating Americans bought Chandler cars—open and closed—every month this fall. And at no time has the demand been fully met. Thousands have waited months for their new Chandlers, and have felt repaid for waiting.

Nothing could more clearly show the regard in which America holds the Chandler Six, than the patience with which these thousands waited for weeks and months for their Chandlers. They waited because they knew what they were waiting for—because they knew it was worth waiting for.

THOUGHT A LOT

But Really, Under the Circumstances, There Was Nothing the Actor-Manager Could Say.

The late Oscar Hammerstein, who had a genius for advertising his theatrical enterprises, used to tell a story about an English actor-manager's attempt to follow his example.

"My conferee," Mr. Hammerstein would say, "was having a new theater built in London. Casting about for some good way to advertise it, he decided that an admirable scheme would be to have the workmen while excavating for the foundation come across Roman antiquities. So he stole down to the operation at dead of night and deposited a number of costly, genuine Roman antiquities just below the surface of the spot being excavated.

"The next morning he arrived in haste to hear the news of the great find and report it to the journals. Seeing that the men had already dug well below his hidden treasure, he said:

"Good morning, foreman. Anything interesting this morning?"

"No, sir, not a thing, sir," the foreman answered.

"The actor-manager looked at the bulging pockets of the workmen and said nothing. What could he say?"

Scaw Fell Pike.

Scaw Fell Pike, Cumberland's mountain summit, is to be the property of Englishmen in perpetuity. The highest hill of England is the very noble gift made by Lord Leconfield to the men of Cumbria who fought in the war, and as a token of gratitude to those who gave their lives for the cause of the world's liberty. Truly a gift in the spirit of Ruskin and one which causes the Manchester Guardian to utter deepest appreciation—a gift, it says, through which "even we common people may get a momentary entry into the ecstasies of the poets and see the earth and everything in it mystically appareled with the glory and the freshness of a dream." Scaw Fell Pike has the venerable distinction of being among the most ancient mountains of Europe, outdistancing the Alps in point of years.

Shifting Misery.

C. Winslow, a Terre Haute business man, recently went back to his home town for a visit. While there he met an elderly village character in the street. The man was bent and complaining. "Why, how are you?" began Mr. Winslow, genially.

"Not very well, fact I'm pretty poorly," whined the man. "You see I have the most terrible misery here," and he indicated his stomach.

"But I thought it was in your neck when I was home last," Mr. Winslow commented.

"Yes, it was there then," the man agreed, "but you see since then I swallowed that misery and it's been in my stomach ever since."

Grannies Have First Call.

Dark-haired people, so says an authority, get married sooner than fair-haired individuals. He has shown by statistics that an overwhelming majority of those women who live and die spinsters have fair hair.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull aches and throbs, when your temples throb and your face feels as if it were on fire, it draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, headache, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.
